Office of the Purchasing Agent
Confirmation Hearing for Purchasing Agent
Maria de Lourdes Coss

Thank you Chairman Suffredin and Commissioners of the Cook County Board. I want to take this opportunity to express my deepest appreciation to President Preckwinckle for appointing me as Purchasing Agent for Cook County.

As you see on my resume, I have a Master's Degree in Public Administration and over 24 years of public procurement experience. I have private sector, non-for-profit, local government, and higher education experience. Prior to becoming the Director of Purchasing at the University of Illinois at Chicago, I was Managing Deputy Procurement Officer at the City of Chicago. I returned to the City in 2005 after being at the Public Building Commission for almost five years when Mary Dempsey asked me to join her team to help her reenergize the Department of Procurement Services. I am a Certified Public Purchasing Officer and I sit on the Board of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing. While at the University, I was appointed by Governor Quinn to the Business Enterprise Council to represent higher education and was also a member of the Disparity Study Oversight Committee.

This is an exciting opportunity to implement change to positively impact the lives of taxpayers. I share this administration's vision for transparency and efficiency to restore public trust in the operations of government. Consistent with the President's vision, the implementation of strategic efforts is imminent. It is important that we implement strategies that will help the County realize cost savings in its purchases in order to continue to deliver the services necessary for the taxpayers. It is also our goal to implement workshops to educate vendors regarding the process of doing business with the County in order to achieve more competition and greater participation by minority and women-owned businesses.

Through the implementation of strategic efforts, cost savings will be realized and relationships will be enhanced. A team approach to purchasing with the offices of other elected officials will help leverage volume. Working together will help us maximize the benefits of each other strengths and open the lines of communication. Better communication will be an asset in achieving greater transparency of procurement transactions.

Transparency in government is a nationwide topic when it comes to procurement. Many agencies throughout the country have some type of transparency initiative providing taxpayers a view of government operations, particularly government spending and contract awards. This initiative goes hand in hand with technology. We will be looking at short and long term solutions to achieve the level of transparency to which this administration has committed. The implementation of technology will also be an opportunity to rethink and streamline processes in order to eliminate any redundancy that ultimately results in inefficiencies and waste.

Finally, in order to create a sustainable base to continue to seek and implement best practices, it is crucial to establish a professional development program leading to certification in public procurement. The training has proven valuable in other organizations and it is a measure of excellence in the area of public procurement not only nationally, but also internationally. Holding a certification in public procurement such as Certified Professional Public Buyer (CPPB) or Certified Public Purchasing Officer (CPPO) elevates the level of professionalism of the staff, their expertise and credibility. These are designations that are highly regarded in the field of public procurement. The course work lead to the adoption to values and principles that should be upheld by qualified public procurement personnel.

In summary, the implementation of formal training and technology will help us build a solid base to continue to adopt best practices, think more strategically, build relationships, improve communication internally and externally, make processes more transparent, and help reduce the cost of services provided by the County. Thank you.

RE: Maria de Lourdes Coss

Dear President Preckwinkle:

I am very pleased to write in support of your nomination of Maria de Lourdes Coss as Purchasing Agent of Cook County. I have worked directly with Ms. Coss on purchasing matters for many years and believe she is an exemplary choice for Purchasing Agent for Cook County.

Ms. Coss has an outstanding professional reputation and record of work in the field of government procurement and purchasing. Not only is she extremely knowledgeable about the field as evidenced by her long and successful career, most importantly she is a person of high integrity and honesty. I first worked with Ms. Coss when she was the Director of Procurement for the Public Building Commission where the Chicago Public Library is a major client. Ms. Coss not only handled her duties with tremendous competence and professionalism, but I was always confident that she and her team were scrupulous in following applicable purchasing laws and procedures including adhering to the PBC's M/WBE policies and requirements.

So highly did I think of Ms. Coss' integrity and abilities that in 2005 when Mayor Richard M. Daley asked me to reinvent and revitalize the City of Chicago's Department of Procurement Services (DPS), I sought out Ms. Coss to leave the PBC and to assist me in my work at DPS. Ms. Coss became the Managing Deputy Procurement Officer. She was an invaluable member of our new team – devising and implementing a strategic plan, introducing efficiencies to eliminate a massive backlog, training staff in proper procedures and in the purchasing code and laws, introducing technology to ensure greater efficiency and accountability, and helping to set a tone of honesty, integrity, professionalism and competence that had been lacking in that department. The Department of Procurement Services was transformed for the better, thanks in large measure to the dedication and professionalism of Ms. Coss and those she recruited and trained at DPS.

Ms. Coss' reputation in the profession continued to grow after I left DPS. In 2006, she was recruited to the position of Director of Purchasing at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC). I was very pleased to recommend her for that position, to the Chancellor of the University. Her outstanding work there for the past four years has obviously brought her to your attention.

I can think of no finer way to transform and professionalize purchasing for Cook County than to appoint Lourdes Coss as the Purchasing Agent for the County. And I can think of no finer way to set a tone of honesty, integrity and fairness within that department than to have Ms. Coss as its leader.

I recommend her to you with great enthusiasm. I know that she will make you, the Commissioners and the people of Cook County proud to know that its purchasing department will not only comply with applicable laws, but that their work will be marked by the highest degree of competence, innovation, professionalism and integrity.

I congratulate you on your selection of Ms. Coss. Please feel free to contact me directly if you or any of the Commissioners wishes to talk with me further.

Sincerely,

Re: Maria del Lourdes Coss

Dear President Preckwinkle:

It is an honor to be asked to furnish this letter in support of Lourdes Coss' appointment to the office of Purchasing Agent of Cook County. I have known Lourdes for fifteen years as both a client and colleague. In 1995, Lourdes represented the City of Chicago's Department of Purchases, Contracts and Supplies ("City Purchasing"), and I represented the City's Department of Law, on the team that worked on the development of the Central Area Circulator for the City. Lourdes was very knowledgeable about both procurement and City government. More importantly to me, she was very generous with her knowledge and her time, as I was new to City government at that point, and I learned a great deal from her.

In 1997, I joined City Purchasing as an Assistant Purchasing Agent, and was responsible for all procurement for the Department of Aviation. Lourdes was working as the contracts administrator for the Department of Sewers at that point. Fortunately, she was willing to take on a bigger role in City Purchasing, and became the Deputy Purchasing Agent for the City's infrastructure departments when I was appointed Deputy Purchasing Agent for Aviation. We worked closely together to standardize forms and practices across departments, manage change orders more effectively, and decrease the processing time for infrastructure contracts. We both left City Purchasing in 2000, but when I returned to the City Law Department in 2005, I was happy to learn that Lourdes had returned to the Department of Procurement Services as the Deputy Procurement Officer for the Department of Aviation. Once again we worked closely with each other in the effort to move the O'Hare Modernization Program from the planning stage to construction, and were able to initiate the controls and processes that facilitated the OMP's achievements in meeting their schedules and budgets.

As far as I am concerned, the County could not have made a better selection for its Purchasing Agent. Lourdes has the knowledge, interpersonal skills, patience, and most importantly, the integrity that is essential for public procurement work. I have no doubt that Lourdes will do well in the position of Purchasing Agent, and that her good work will reflect well upon and provide the necessary support to your administration, and County government as a whole. Please feel free to contact me at 312-628-7016 should you have any questions in this regard.

Sincerely,

David P. Winters

Re: Maria De Lourdes Coss

Dear Toni:

Maria De Lourdes Coss is the perfect choice for the position of Chief Procurement Officer for Cook County.

Very few people, locally or nationally, have the experience and the reputation that Lourdes Coss has in the procurement and purchasing community and among small business owners and the minority and women's business community.

She has had a major impact on public procurement and is committed to transparency, process improvement, the utilization of technology and ethics and integrity.

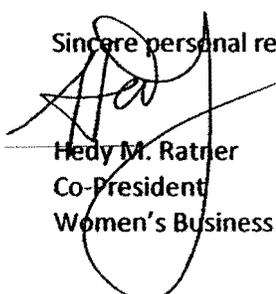

Her experience at the University of Illinois as Director of Purchasing resulted in the implementation of an organizational structure and processes that is exactly what Cook County needs in their procurement programs.

She served with esteem as Managing Deputy Procurement Officer at the City of Chicago and especially at the Public Building Commission where she expanded its compliance with Minority and women's business goals.

She has continued to be active in important purchasing organizations and in procurement and M/WBE councils to enhance and strengthen government procurement programs for minority and women business enterprises.

I commend the President's office for an excellent appointment of Lourdes Coss as Chief Procurement Officer.

Sincere personal regards,

Re: Lourdes Coss

Dear President Preckwinkle:

I am writing in support of the appointment of Lourdes Coss to the position of chief procurement officer for Cook County.

Her credentials are excellent with 24 years experience in government procurement, national certification (Certified Public Purchasing Officer) and a master's degree in public administration.

I could recommend her on the credentials alone, but she brings more to the job than that. From personal knowledge I know that ethics and integrity are paramount to her. She really enjoys her profession of procurement and understands how procurement needs to work within the system to meet the goals of the larger organization.

A good leader recognizes that good staff is key to the success of the organization. One thing that especially impressed me was her dedication to her staff. She went to great lengths to train and raise the professionalism of the staff. Most of the buying staff now holds at least one procurement certification.

I had previously appointed Lourdes as Acting State Purchasing Officer for the University of Illinois at Chicago. That was a good decision on my part and I think you made a good decision to appoint her to your CPO position.

If you have any questions, please call me at 217-558-2254.

Sincerely,

Ben Bagby
Chief Procurement Officer for Institutions of Higher Education

Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the opportunity to present on behalf of President Preckwinkle a federal lobbying contract for Susan White of Susan J. White and Associates. Susan has had a relationship with Cook County for and began lobbying on behalf of Cook County in 1997.

Let me be clear on the current climate in Washington DC. This will be a difficult year for units of local government. As you know, upon becoming Speaker of the House, John Boehner and the Majority Caucus have outlined their governing priorities. Among those priorities are:

Reducing government spending and cutting appropriation levels by 9% under last year's marks, which are projected to save the federal government tens of billions of dollars;

Freezing and reducing domestic discretionary spending to save over $50 billion. Domestic discretionary spending includes programming and federal grants to units of local government. The new House Budget Committee Chairman has previously advocated for discretionary funding to be level-funded through fiscal year 2014—that would mean reducing budget line items each year by the rate of inflation;

The new Chairman of the House Energy and Commerce Committee has proposed block granting Medicaid funds to states.

As you know, the federal government pays a fixed share of a state's Medicaid costs. If the federal government moves to block granting those dollars to states, it would then pay only a fixed dollar amount of a state's costs.

If Illinois exceeded the amount of Medicaid funding provided to it, the state would be responsible for all costs that exceed the cap.

Even with the income tax increase that was passed last week by the Illinois General Assembly, Illinois remains billions of dollars in debt. Block grants could be devastating to our Health and Hospitals System.

Also targeted by Members of both parties are continuing appropriations to help reduce the federal deficit. Already identified by Members of both parties are funds that we receive, allocated in the Benefits Improvement and Protection Act of 2000, for funding our health system. From this appropriation alone, we receive over $130 million per year.

And Members of both parties in both chambers have said earmarks will be eliminated within the budget this year.

The federal budget for FFY 2012 will be smaller than the one currently in effect. And cuts will be made to states and units of local government. We will take every opportunity that is presented to bring more federal resources home to Cook County, including submitting projects for inclusion with the surface transportation reauthorization bill.

But our first priority will be defending and keeping the resources that we receive from Washington DC. That is responsible course of action. Helping us do that again this year will be Susan White.

Susan's government relations practice spans over thirty years in Washington on federal, state and local government issues, including health and tax policy legislation and regulation. She has successfully sought direct funding under Medicaid for hospitals, specific tax provisions for her clients and appropriations funding for local projects in the social services and infrastructure areas.

Susan worked for ten years as a health and tax and finance lobbyist for the National Association of Counties and in her own business has represented numerous counties over the years.

Susan has over thirty years in Washington DC, working closely with key congressional leadership offices and congressional committees, including the Senate Committees on Finance and on Health, Education, Labor and Pension (HELP); the House Committees on Ways and Means, on Energy and Commerce, and on Education and Labor; the Senate and House Committees on Appropriations and others.

She works with numerous public interest and trade groups in Washington, including the American Hospital Association, the National Association of Public Hospitals, the National Association of Children's Hospitals, the National Governors' Association, the National Association of Counties, the National Conference of State Legislatures, the U.S. Conference of Mayors and the National League of Cities.

She has a reputation for honesty and competency among members of the Cook County and Illinois Congressional Delegation and I am happy to present her contract for this committee's consideration.

Susan or I am happy to answer any questions that you or any committee member may have for us.

Ms. White was responsible for all activities of the Association related to the 1986 Tax Reform Act. She was involved in saving the state and local income and property tax deduction and helped to form the Coalition against Double Taxation on that issue. She lobbied successfully to scale back initial efforts to eliminate much of the access of state and local governments to tax-exempt bonds, working closely with a network of public interest groups.

From 1981-85, Ms. White was the chief health and education lobbyist for the National Association of Counties. She served as staff director for the Association's Health and Education Steering Committee and worked with members to develop a presence for county government in Washington on public health and education policy concerns, forging positions on federal health and education policies and implementing federal health care and education legislative strategies. Ms. White wrote testimony for and worked with local elected and appointed officials, public hospital and nursing home administrators and formed national coalitions to fight Medicaid cap proposals in the early eighties.

While at the National Association of Counties, Ms. White sought and obtained funding for the first national conference on indigent health care. The project was jointly conceived and managed by Ms. White and the National Governors' Association. The conference was held in San Francisco in the fall of 1983 and papers and proceedings on the intergovernmental roles related to indigent care were published. All publications were edited and coordinated by Ms. White and the National Governors' Association.
